

Michael C. Warner

681 Cherry Ridge Ct Grantsville, UT 84029

mwclimbs@gmail.com

Cell phone (435) 841-0589

EDUCATION

Aircraft Maintenance (Airframe and Powerplant Certification)

May 1995

Salt Lake Community College, Salt Lake City Ut

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Avionics level III technician for General Atomics Aeronautical Systems Inc, 2011-present
- Aircraft support technician for Textron, 2009-2011
- Avionics technician for M1 support Services, 2008-2009
- Aircraft mechanic and Avionics technician for Horizon Air, 2006-2008

Management Skills:

- Effectively track and process time sensitive projects. With the use of spreadsheets and aircraft specific tracking software
- Train visiting personal in workflow and procedures while at our work location.
- Instruct in safety procures during use of potentially dangerous equipment.

Operations Skills:

- Maintain aircraft electronic systems to minimize down time and keep aircraft in fully functional status.
- Maintain aircraft ground support equipment, including updating software and operating systems to meet mission standards.
- Control and use specialized equipment to meet customers' requirements.
- Use of Microsoft office, Linux and VM ware

Communication Skills:

- Communicate clearly and concisely through written and spoken language.
- Coordinate well with other people, departments, contractors, and vendors.
- Establish and maintain relationships quickly with others.

Leadership/Volunteer Experience:

- Work closely with customers on remote location sites. To ensure operations run smoothly.
- Work closely with youth organizations for over 25 years. Ensuring they learn and apply necessary skills presented to them.
- Teach outdoor skills, including camping, kayaking, swimming, and marksmanship.